Our Story

The Twisted Whisk is a small, family owned and operated bakery located in Gainesville, Georgia. We take pride in our baked goods and put love and care into every bite.

Our cheese straws are just like the ones my Nana used to make. Her kitchen was a place of warmth and joy. She taught me many things growing up, not the least of which was a love of cooking and baking for others. She lived to feed her family delicious sweets and savory treats.

Just like my grandmother, baking for others brings me great joy. I've baked for my family and friends since I was a young girl. When my own kids were young, I made everything from fresh bread to homemade pop tarts. Once they grew up, I realized I wanted to keep baking for others and share my creations, so my husband and I started The Twisted Whisk.

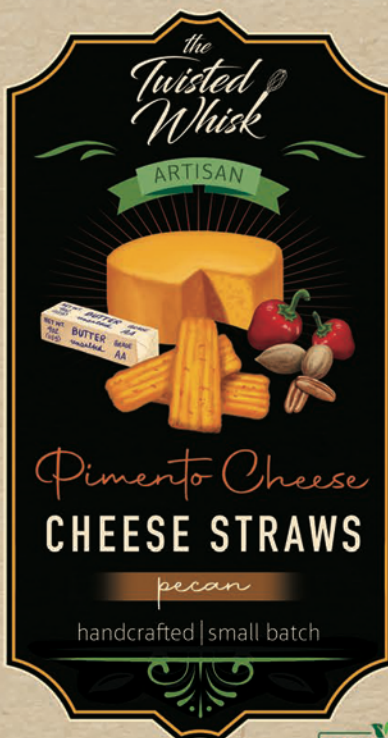

We bake everything from scratch using quality ingredients, a pinch of love, and a dash of joy.

I hope you enjoy these and I invite you to try all of our other tasty creations.

Thank you for supporting our small business. We are grateful for you!
